Good news in The News

Find Balloon

In 1978 the students from Antioch Grade School sent out tagged balloons.

A lot of them received answers from people who had found them in different states but Amber, Danny and David Martin had given up hope that anyone had found theirs.

Last month they received a letter from a Clyde Willis, who is a surveyor in Wheelersburg, Ohio, telling them he had found their balloon two years ago while he was rabbit hunting.

It seems Willis had put their tag in his hunting jacket and forgotten about it until hunting season arrived this year.

Planning Meeting

A joint meeting with Lane Kendry of the Lake County Planning and zoning Dept. and the Antioch Planning Commission will be held at 7:30 p.m., on Nov. 20, at the Antioch Village Hall.

The public is invited to give input on the discussion on the second alternative plan for the Antioch Area.

Open House

Don't forget the State Bank's Open House on Nov. 18 and 19.

Last Chance

Just a reminder that Saturday, Nov. 15, is the last day for filing board of review complaint forms on the 1980 Antioch Township assessments.

Township next Village tax cut petition on file

A group of Antioch area citizens have decided to do something about what they consider unwarrantedly high taxes.

After holding several meetings, the group has filed a petition with the village containing 100 signatures of Antioch residents, calling for three tax cut referendums to be placed on the April election ballot.

They are calling for the lowering of village tax ceilings not the tax assessments as they presently stand.

A lowering of the $.25 corporate property tax ceiling to $.1875; a lowering of the fire protection fund ceiling from $.15 to $.11 per $100 of assessed value; a lowering of the tax ceiling on the street and bridge levy now at $.10 to $.075 per $100 of assessed value, are the three particular tax ceiling cuts called for by the group.

The petition filed with the village had a surplus of signatures since only 25 were needed.

Representatives of the tax revolt group say that they withheld another 100 signatures since they were not needed at this time.

Mayor Haley and members of the village board, although they are puzzled as to the reason for the tax cut ceiling drive, since none of the levies are at the ceiling level, are not particularly opposed to the groups intentions.

Haley says, "It's up to the voters to decide what they want to do with their money," in stating his non-opposition to the tax cut referendums.

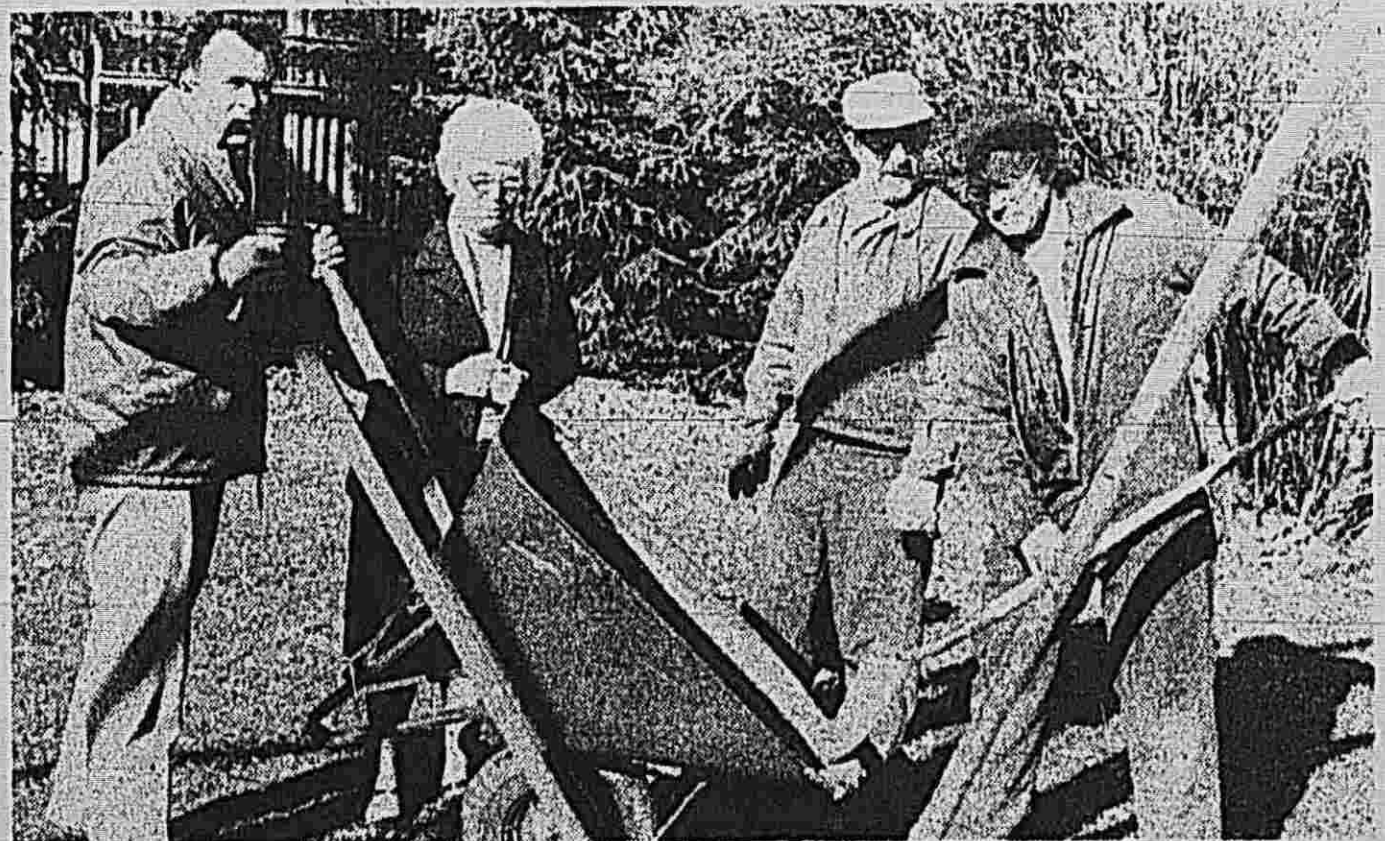

But he also cautions that any tax cuts might possibly result in a cut in services.

Todd Maplethorpe, Antioch Fire Chief and his department are not as agreeable as the board when it comes to the group's claims that the non-profit fire department is costing the taxpayers more to operate than a for profit department would.

Calling their claims "fiction" Maplethorpe is supposed to be compiling a fact sheet refuting their claims but has not been available for a figure verification of his claim.

Joe Bauer and Claudette Skvarce, members of the tax cut group, say that they are now going to move to the township level and intend to discuss township tax cuts at their meeting scheduled for Thursday.

Reports from the group members also indicate that they may be discussing backing candidates for both the village and town board, who agree with their proposals, in the upcoming election.

'Matchmaker' to be at ACHS

"Hello Dolly" without music? Don't be ridiculous!

But that is exactly what Antioch Community High School is bringing to its stage when the drama division of The Fine Arts Department presents Thornton Wilder's "The Matchmaker" on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 20, 21, and 22. All performances start at 8 p.m.

"The Matchmaker," although the basis for a very popular musical, is considered by many to be much better show than the musical, certainly much funnier.

The story of how one woman "sticks her hand" into other peoples lives and adapts them to what she considers a much better situation takes on an added dimension in the straight comedy which it lacks in the musical.

The romantic couples who help bring the show to exciting life on the Antioch stage are: Tony Starke and Jennifer Czapiewski as Horace Vander Gelder and Dolly Gallagher Levi; Charley Bischoff and Jeannie Lindgren as Cornelius Hackl and Irene Malloy; Alex Apostol and Susan Butler as Barnaby Tucker and Minnie Fay; and Ed Wells and Dawn Hansen as Ambrose Pierce and Ermengarde (Vander Gelder's niece).

Others in featured roles are Peggy Martini as Gertrude, James Fabry as Malachi, Earl Ballanger as Rudolph the Waiter, Chuck Duha in the double role of Joe and Barber and August, the waiter, Roger Knowlton as the cabman, Jennifer Biel as Miss Van Heuysen and Kelley Griffen as the cook. Becky Boehm is the stage manager of the show.

Directed by Ken Smouse, the show promises to be one of the best the high school has produced.

Tickets are available from members of the cast or can be purchased at the door.

Adeline singers, plan Nov. 15 show

If "oldies but goodies" still make your heart skip a beat, then the Lake County Chapter of Sweet Adelines has a show for you! On Saturday evening, Nov. 22, at Libertyville High School (708 W. Park Ave.) the Lake County Chorus, under the direction of Joan Gardner, will present "80 years of Memorable Music: 1900 to 1980."

The curtain will open at 8:12 p.m. to tunes from those bygone days complete with costumes from each decade. Tickets may be purchased at the door, if available, or by calling Roberta Quick, 336-1757, or Betty Cecil, 566-6517.

In addition to the 34 voice chorus, the show will be featuring two guest quartets in various segments of the show: the Schizophonics, a hilarious comedy quartet consisting of four fun-loving guys encased in middle-aged skins; and the Stargazers, four terrific gals whose harmony will take you right "out of this world."

Sweet Adelines is an international non-profit organization with over 32,000 members in 721 chapters located throughout the United States and Europe.

Country New country Bazaar talent wanted Slated

Christ Lutheran Church, located on Hwy. 50 in Pad dock Lake, will hold its annual Country Fair Bazaar on Nov. 15 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Along with Grandma's Cupboard, a plant and garden shop, a coffee shop, Holiday House, arts and crafts and gift shop, there will be some new attractions.

They include an ice cream parlor, where you make your own sundae, put on by the Youth Group; clown face painting by Bonnie Serak and a children's corner where there will be a rummage sale of clothes and toys.

There will also be a game room for the children which includes a fish pond, Bozo game, fishing game and a sucker tree.

Lunch will also be served from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. by Steven Voltz. So be sure to stop in as the Country Fair promises an enjoyable afternoon with something to offer all who attend.

The new Countryside Corral in the Antioch Bowl is looking for fresh, new talent, and the search for talent has prompted an amateur contest for those who are country music lovers.

Anyone with musical talents, whether single, a duo, or group (band), who are amateurs (non-union) and over 21 are eligible to compete in the Countryside Corral contest. A single or duo can present a comedy act as their talent as long as it is country orientated. Entry fees are $5 single, $15 duos, and $25 groups.

Preliminaries will be held on three Thursdays — Nov. 13, 20, and Dec. 3, beginning at 8:30 p.m. Winners of the preliminaries will be invited to compete in the finals Thursday, Dec. 10.

Prizes will be offered at the finals with a $200 first place, award to the best musical group or $100 to a single or duo. Second place is worth $100 to a group or $50 to a single or duo and third place is $50 and $25 respectively.

Winners may also be offered a contract to play regularly at the Countryside Corral, which features live country music Fridays and Saturdays.

Registration forms are available at the Countryside Corral in the Antioch Bowl, on Rte. 173, one Quartermile west of Rte. 59. Interested persons may call Jamie at 395-1155 for information.

The Countryside Corral offers a 25 cent hot dog night, Monday, ladies night Tuesdays with 25 cent off drinks, and stag night for men Wednesdays with 50 cent beer.

Forest Preserve to build trail bridge

The Lake County Forest Preserve District has recently received funding assistance to construct a multi-purpose recreational trail bridge across the Des Plaines River in northern Lake County.

Funding was approved by the Snowmobile Grant Program of the Illinois Department of Conservation, which receives its monies from snowmobile registration fees, and seeks to promote trail related activities, including snowmobiling, cross country skiing, hiking, biking among others.

This particular bridge will be part of a trail system now under construction along the Des Plaines River and also serve to connect two existing forest preserves, Sterling Lake and Van Patten Woods.

President of the Lake County Forest Preserve District, Donald Strenger, stated that construction will commence as soon as possible in the spring with completion hopefully in mid summer of 1981.

Dracula comes out Saturday night at PM&L

"Dracula," one of the great horror plays of all time, will open Saturday night, Nov. 15, at the PM&L Theater, 877 Main St. in Antioch.

Later performances may be seen Friday and Saturday nights, Nov. 21, 22, 28, 29; and also on the afternoon of Sunday, Nov. 23.

The curtain will rise at 8:30 p.m. for the evening shows and 2:30 p.m. for the Sunday matinee.

AS SOME WILL find good reason for preferring not to see "Dracula" in the dark, the afternoon performance is especially noteworthy.

PM&L is experimenting this year with Sunday matinees in an effort to meet the requirements of the many playgoers who do not find it convenient or possible to come to Friday or Saturday night shows, or who are, plainly and frankly, afraid to meet vampires at night.

The reaction to this experiment will guide PM&L's future programming.

The story of the most frightening of all vampires, "Dracula" was adapted by H. Deane and J.L. Balderston from the famous novel by Bram Stoker.

HARDLY A MAN is now alive who remembers when the play was first produced, but it has been scaring audiences regularly ever since.

Drama critics have said such things about "Dracula" as: "rich in horror; blithely blood-curdling, somebody will have to club it to death if it's ever to stop," and "See it and creep." So think seriously about that Sunday matinee.

The PM&L production is directed by Bill Sershon, and the outstanding cast includes Larry Bullman, from Ingleside, as Count Dracula; Dawn Ferry, Gurnee, as Lucy; Lou Jones, Round Lake, as Dr. Van Helsing; Jim Bishop and Bruce Stamm from Round Lake Beach; Rosaline Trusky, from Winthrop Harbor; and Keith Boehm and Bob McKee from Antioch.

Most of these performers are already well-known by Antioch theatergoers.

As everything must be strong for "Dracula," service at 395-3055, the telephone number for PM&L reservations, has been strengthened and put on a regular basis.

Remember to call this number to reserve seats, and to be at the PM&L box office no later than 8:15 p.m. on the night, or 2:15 p.m. on the afternoon that you plan to see the show.

Future farmers meet

The Future Farmers 4-H Club held their second meeting, Nov. 4 at Peggy Kanable's home. Guest speaker, Dwayne Bookwalter spoke to the club about his trip to New ealand and Australia, sponsored by the Lake County Farm Bureau.

He told about many different things. After the meeting Peggy served the traditional cheese, crackers and milk.

Lions' planning Dec. theater party

The Lions Club of Antioch has scheduled a Dinner-Theatre Party for Lions and their Ladies on Wednesday, Dec. 3.

The local organization has reserved a block of tickets for the musical "Oliver" at Marriott's Lincolnshire Theatre. The play will be preceded by a buffet dinner in The Chaparral.

"Oliver", one of the biggest musical comedy successes of the 1960's, is the brilliant musical entertainment of Charles Dickens's "Oliver Twist" with beloved characters like Fagin and his gaggle of pocket-picking urchins, beautiful Nancy, and Artful Dodger.

It thrilled audiences for two years in New York, five years in London, and on four long American tours.

The dinner is set for 6:30 p.m. and curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

"The special evening of food, fun and theatre is our way of saying 'Thank You' to our ladies," said Lion President Paul Eckert.

Lions Club members who are serving on the committee are Joe Hunley, Gene Baney and John Wolf.

Reservations for the Dinner-Theatre Party must be made by Nov. 10.

Jacette Prize

Jaycettes complete project

The Antioch Jaycettes completed their Bowling for Autism project recently with a prize ceremony at the Antioch Bowling Alley.

The actual bowling took place last May 18. It was well supported by many bowlers and sponsors as well as by area merchants who donated prizes for the project.

The proceeds are mostly in now, so the prizes were awarded to the winners. Sylvia Erdenberger won a bowling ball and bag for collecting the most contributions.

Second prize for contributions collected was an XR106 camera and went to Arlene Bellefeuille.

For bowling scores, a case of champagne went to Allen Sandus for his high series of 587, Dan Dryer received a Kodak pocket camera for his high game of 208, and Renee Hallwas bowled a 174 game to receive a $15.00 savings account for the high game bowled by bowlers under age 12.

The Jaycettes also presented a plaque of appreciation to Joe Sterben for his assistance and the use of the Antioch Bowling Alley for this project.

The Jaycettes will present a check for the funds collected to Jim Edwards, Illinois Jaycee state chairman for the Jaycee's Foundation for Autism, at the Jaycee fall general assembly meeting in Decatur this month.

These funds will be used by the Illinois Sean Therapy Institute.

This was a very successful project for the Jaycettes. Bonnie Bruski, project chairman, said that the Jaycettes were very pleased with the results of their projects and want to thank again all of those people who helped make it the success it was.

50 YEARS AGO: NOVEMBER 13, 1930

Subdued, although not seriously injured following a battle with Constable Sidney Dibble and Deputy Sheriff Al B. Maier, L. Schaenstine was brought before Justice Keller in Lake Villa late yesterday where he paid a fine of $20 for resisting arrest and hunting without a permit in the O.W. Lehmann farm game preserve.

Pronounced a success both socially and financially, the 13th annual dance given at the Antioch Palace was without a doubt one of the most enjoyable programs ever given by the Antioch Volunteer Fire Department. A large crowd enjoyed the event.

Antioch has cause to feel proud of their squad in spite of the loss of the last game to Libertyville by the score of 6-0, as the boys played their best every minute of the game and put up a terrific scrap.

Mrs. Henry Rentner and Mrs. John E. Moore were hostesses to the Thursday afternoon bridge club at the home of Mrs. Moore on Victoria street this afternoon. Three prizes were awarded.

A public dinner will be served at the M.E. church Saturday, starting at 5 p.m. until all are served. Everyone is cordially invited to come and enjoy the roast beef dinner — 50 cents.

Nearly three hundred people turned out to celebrate principal W.C. Petty's victory as County Supt. of schools.

30 YEARS AGO: NOVEMBER 16, 1950

A push of a button by Mayor James McMillen at 6 p.m. tomorrow will turn darkness into day for Antioch's downtown business section through a new lighting system.

Some thirty years ago the Antioch Woman's Club named a committee to carry out the club's desire to give Antioch a library. The members of this committee, Mrs. Wm. Ziegler, Mrs. Oliver Matthews, Mrs. William Watson, Mrs. John Brogan, Miss Lenora Hughes and Miss Alice E. Smith, collected books and rented a few shelves in Walter Chinn's candy store for the books. Through various fund raising ventures the resources of the library grew and was installed in the village hall hiring Miss Mary Stanley as the first librarian. In 1929 a newly formed library board adopted bylaws and elected as officers; Elmer Brook, Mrs. Oliver Matthews, Dr. R.D. Williams, Robert King, Mrs. John Brogan and Mrs. W.W. Warriner. This board found space in the Antioch Grade School for the rapidly expanding library. In 1937 the library moved to the Elms building and in 1941 to the Masonic Hall. In 1942, Miss Stanley retired and Miss Betty Lu Williams was appointed librarian. Miss Williams went away to school in 1945 and Marion Rigby succeeded her. The former E.B. Williams residence at Main and Williams Sts., is now the township's new library site. With its spacious lawn and trees, the residence has been converted into an attractive and cozy place for reading. The public will inspect it at an open house Friday.

Pipelines... make good neighbors

America has over 220,000 miles of petroleum pipelines carrying crude oil and products to refineries and storage terminals across the United States. Each day, more than 1.5 billion ton/miles of crude oil and products move through this network. These pipelines have a safety record second to none in the transportation industry... and we want you to help us keep it that way.

- liquids on or a mist above the ground in the area of a pipeline.
- Flames originating from an opening in the ground.
- If you become aware of a pipeline leak...
- LEAVE THE LEAK AREA IMMEDIATELY.
- Avoid driving into vapor clouds.
- Avoid direct contact with the escaping liquids.

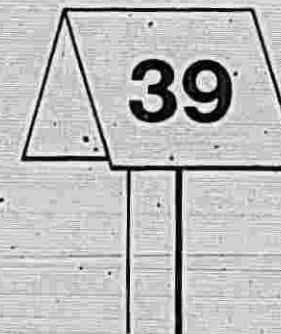

GROUND MARKER

GROUND MARKER

CASING VENT

AERIAL MARKER

When you see signs like those shown above, they tell you that there's a pipeline nearby. If it's underground, you can't see it, of course. But it's there, working quietly to provide energy for you and other consumers throughout this nation.

Some of these signs list the commodity transported in the pipeline, the name of the operator, and a telephone number where the operator's representative can be reached at all times.

Although pipelines have an exceptionally good safety record, once in a while a leak can occur. Indications of a leak might include:

- A strange or unusual odor in the vicinity of a pipeline.
- A hissing or roaring sound (caused by petroleum or product escaping from a pipeline).
- A dense white cloud or fog.
- A spot of dead or discolored vegetation.
- An accumulation of petroleum

- Avoid creating sparks or sources of heat which could cause the liquids or vapor to ignite and burn. If you find yourself in a suspected vapor area, do not light a match, start an engine or even switch on an electric light.

- Notify the pipeline operator as soon as you reach a safe area. Call collect. Give your name, a description of the leak and its location. If you do not know who the pipeline operator is, call your local fire, police or sheriff's department, or the state police. Advise them of the nature and location of the emergency.

If you see someone digging near a pipeline or doing other construction work... or if you plan to do such work near a pipeline yourself... please call the telephone number shown on the sign and let the pipeline company know so damage can be avoided. It's in your interest... and the nation's.

Pipelines are the safest way to move petroleum and products and you can help keep it that way!

Letter To The Editor

Lions give thanks
Dear Editor:

On becoming president of Harvard University in 1869, Charles William Eliot said, "In the modern world the intelligence of public opinion is the one indispensable condition of social progress."

Learning is not restricted to formal education; formal education merely begins the learning process, a process which is aided by newspaper communications.

Your newspaper is to be congratulated for its efforts at informing the public, not only about world events and a myriad of issues, but also about social conditions and positive contributions in your community.

The 33,000 members of the Lions Clubs of Illinois want to mark this coming Thanksgiving season by publicly expressing thanks to the media for their positive contributions to human welfare during this past year.

Whether by informing the public about worthwhile Lions projects such as Candy Day, the Mobile Glaucoma and Hearing Screening Units, Eye Donor Registry, our campaign to finance construction of the Lions of Illinois Eye Research Institute, or other projects; or by informing the public about worthwhile efforts of other agencies and individuals, the newspapers of this state have provided a valuable public service for social progress—and also have assured the public that in these confusing times, there still is good news!

Please accept my gratitude for a job well done.

The State Bank of Antioch

BANK OF ANTIOCH — 1893 — Original bank occupied the building on Lake St. that now houses the offices of Attorney Ted Larsen.

BROOK STATE BANK — 1900 — After a fire in 1900, the Bank of Antioch relocated to the building where the Las Vegas Restaurant is today, changing its name to the Brook State Bank.

J. ERNST BROOKS 1904

The seed that was to grow into the large financial institution that is today's State Bank of Antioch, was planted after the "Panic of 1893".

It was then that Edward Brook, a Burlington farmer, who was on the board of the Meinhardt Bank, now the Marine Bank, Burlington, heard of the closing of Dan Head and Co. in Antioch.

Dan Head Co. was a branch of a Kenosha banking firm. After enlisting 30 days of tutoring aid from banker Albert Meinhardt for his son James Ernest Brook, who was then a freshman in college, the Brook family went into the banking business in Antioch.

With a distance of 25 miles from their home in Burlington to the Antioch bank, the Brook father and son duo spent many hours on the road.

Both drove the distance in a horse and buggy and James Brook traveled to work on the Soo Line Railroad, boarding the milk train in Burlington at 3 a.m. and arriving in Antioch five hours later, just in time to open the bank at 8 a.m.

Edward was often seen walking the 25 miles, stopping at farms that were on the way for a bite to eat.

The Bank of Antioch was located in the Powles Bldg. on Lake St. until it was destroyed by fire six years later, in 1900.

It was then moved to a building on Main St., now known as the Las Vegas Restaurant where, in 1920 it was chartered by the state of Illinois and its name was changed to the Brook State Bank.

In 1926, the Brook State Bank and the second Antioch State Bank, established in 1903 merged and formed the nucleus of what is now the State Bank of Antioch which was then built at the northwest corner of Lake and Main streets.

The rapid interim growth

STATE BANK 1966

This bank went through an extensive remodeling program in 1958 to accommodate its growth. Still "on the grow" the State Bank moved into a modern new building that was built on the corner of Lake and Spafford streets in 1966.

This building is still the base of the multi-million dollar edifice that is today's State Bank.

Constantly progressing, the bank outgrew these quarters in less than a half of a decade and a grandiose remodeling job was undertaken, completed in 1973, that included an east addition plus a new columned facade.

The expanded State Bank

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT ANDY BERNHARDT

Ground was broken for the attractive architectural achievement that houses the State Bank of Antioch 1980 style, in May of 1979, completed in August of 1980.

The public is invited to view the impressive results at an Open House from 7 to 9 p.m. on Tuesday Nov. 18 and from 2 to 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 19.

From the 18,000 sq. feet that was the State Bank in 1973, the bank has more than doubled in size with almost 22,000 sq. feet of new banking facilities being made available to customers.

With 7,100 sq. feet added to the main floor, customers will find an attractive customer service department, new executive offices, a numerous teller cages there.

The same size second floor addition houses the marketing and commercial loan division.

In the 7,800 basement addition, along with the previous facilities, can be found the bookkeeping department, the comptrolling division, the employees lounge, the vault boxes, the computer room and the J. Ernest Brook Community Room that will be available for various meetings.

The Edward Brook homestead was torn down to facilitate the enlargement of the rear parking lot which was also resurfaced, as was the parking lot to the west of the bank building.

Ramps and four parking places for the handicapped have also been provided behind the main banking building.

The Antioch Holding Co. with experienced banking officials John Madden and Mike Reidy at the helm, was formed in late summer of 1980 and a change of ownership of the State Bank of Antioch took place, with the holding company acquiring 80 percent of the bank's stock.

After being president of the State Bank for 46 years, William Brook said, "the rapid growth and change of industry and the change from a rural area called for a greater sophistication in the State Bank."

Brooks continued, "I have been asked and plan to remain active with the bank as its president and board chairman for about 10 years and I anticipate little change in personnel and the board of directors."

Andrew Bernhardt has been appointed the executive vice president and to a position on the board.

The directors of the State Bank of Antioch presently are William Brook, chairman of the board, Andrew Bernhardt, Albert Bucar, Irving W. Carey, James Carlson, Richard J. Daniel, John B. Fields, James Kopriva, Ted C. Larson, Everett J. Oftedahl, Robert H. Pedersen, Edmund R. Strang, an honorary director, James W. McMillan.

Chamber of Commerce strengthens holiday plans

At a meeting of the Retail Committee on Friday, members of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry moved ahead and enlarged on their plans to make Antioch's Christmas shopping and celebrating very special this year.

Their plans for a gala holiday season include free hayrides in the village on successive Fridays, Nov. 28, Dec. 5 and 12.

The lighting of the village Christmas Tree, which will be decorated by the grade school children, is slated for Thanksgiving weekend, at 7:30 p.m., on Nov. 28.

A special house for Santa is in the working, with visits to Santa scheduled on Friday evenings from 7 to 8:30 p.m., and on Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. through Dec. 13.

Christmas music is heavy on the chamber's preferred list with piped music playing downtown as usual throughout the season, carolers from the schools and churches will also be strolling through the village streets to herald the coming of Christmas, and the dates of the performances of the Messiah at St. Peter's are being set.

The chamber is in hopes that all of the retailers will be opened the same extra holiday hours to help propagate the popularity of "home town shopping."

The extra hours proposed will start on the weekend of Nov. 28. Stores will be open from 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m., Monday through Friday; 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturdays and on Sundays from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Teachers get recognition

The Antioch Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary is happy to help finance a variety of scholarships with their donations.

Some are available only to children of veterans hoping to further their education in college, trade schools; but loans are also available to deserving young students sponsored by the local auxiliary unit, and dependent upon the total amount of contributions made within the state.

Anyone looking for further information on obtaining help should contact Rose Kennedy.

A booklet "Need a Lift" has been placed in the Antioch Library.

Past Presidents of Antioch Unit 748 are especially interested in promoting Nurses' Scholarships for those young people in their senior year, or a graduate of, an accredited high school and in need of financial aid.

Past President and parley chairman, Dorothy Horan, would be happy to get the necessary applications for anyone interested in this vocation.

Marines, civilians join for Toys For Tots

by ROGER RUTHHART

Rebounding from a year when they said they couldn't meet the need in Lake County, the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve has set the goal for this year's Toys For Tots campaign at 35,000 toys.

Last year, Co. H, 2nd battalion 24th Marines, 4th Marine Division in Waukegan, collected about 8,000 toys for needy youngsters countywide.

Capt. Dan Dame, inspector instructor of the Waukegan Marine Reserve center, has announced that Joy D. Schuette of Libertyville, will be the 1980 Toys for Tots campaign chairman in Lake County.

"We have already received requests for 20,000 toys this year," Mrs. Schuette said, "and the campaign has just started. I believe we need to collect at least 35,000 toys, and I know we can do it if everyone pitches in," she said.

Last year the Toys For Tots fell short of its goal, mainly because of an increased demand caused by Johnson Marine employees being out of work.

The United States Marine Corps has been sponsoring Toys For Tots on a nationwide basis for 33 years.

Capt. Dame explained that the Marines work through agencies such as the Waukegan and Round Lake CAP offices to "find out what they need in the way of toys."

Once the toys are collected, they're sorted as best as possible and distributed to the different agencies. "We're maybe not that skilled at sorting toys, but we do the best we can as far as determining what age group they should go to," said Capt. Dame.

"We're confident that the program is worthwhile and that the toys are going to people who need them," Capt. Dame added in assessing the program.

And Marine Reservists each year operate the program out of the kindness of their hearts, deriving no direct benefit.

"We look forward to the bowl of chili we get from the ladies in Round Lake each year. It's the only benefit we get from it," Capt. Dame said.

The captain stressed the tremendous need for toys in Lake County. "Last year we had requests for 35,000 toys and we probably could have distributed 50,000," he estimated.

This year, he explained, the Marines are working to get more exposure for the program. Among the major participants in promoting this year's Toys For Tots campaign is Lakeland Newspapers, publishers of 11 weekly newspapers in Lake County and the official base newspapers at Great Lakes Naval Base, Fort Sheridan and Glenview Naval Air Station.

Lakeland Newspapers will have Toys For Tots barrels in each of its five newspaper offices, according to Joyce Petersen, retail advertising director at Lakeland Newspapers. "The Toys For Tots campaign is being promoted along with the Lakeland Newspapers Christmas Theme Contest," Mrs. Petersen added, although there is no direct relation between the two.

Advertisers in Lakeland Newspapers are being urged to include the Toys For Tots slogan, "A Child's Smile is Worth A Million Toys For Tots," in their ads to add additional exposure to the campaign.

"Our advertising representatives are actively soliciting people to work with the Toys For Tots campaign and put barrels in their store," Mrs. Petersen added.

In addition, the Marines have enlisted the aid of the Waukegan Jaycees to handle the cash donations to the campaign. Marines are not allowed to receive cash donations, but donations can be made to Toys For Tots through the Jaycees and the money will be used to buy toys.

Donations may be sent to the Toys For Tots Fund, Waukegan Jaycees, 9 N. County, Suite 1031, Waukegan, Ill. 60085.

The Toys For Tots campaign will run from Nov. 19 to Dec. 19 and will kick off with the third annual Toys For Tots A-Thon, sponsored by the Marines and Zayre Stores on Sunday, Nov. 16.

The run will be held at Lincoln Park and entry fee is a new toy donated to Toys For Tots. Registration is from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. T-shirts are being given to the first 500 runners crossing the finish line and plaques will be given to winners in each classification.

Also during the campaign the Plitt Theatres will show a special movie, admission of which will be one toy. That showing will be during the first week in December.

Marines stress that all toys donated must be in good condition since they have no facilities for repairing toys, other than light cosmetic work on dolls. Many recipients are mentally or physically handicapped so safety is an important factor.

"A large percentage of donors are attracted to fuzzy animals and cuddly toys, therefore we are often short on suitable gifts for older children," noted Mrs. Schuette. Donors are also asked to consider small items of clothing, such as scarves, hats and mittens for children of any age.

Clubs, organizations, churches, schools and places of business as well as private individuals are encouraged to participate. For more information, call Capt. Dame, 623-7447 or Mrs. Schuette at 680-3484 or your local Lakeland Newspaper office.

Rax Roast Beef Restaurants will be among many merchants and restaurants being utilized as drop off locations for Toys for Tots. Lollipop dragon is part of promotional program. Photos By Roger Ruthhart.

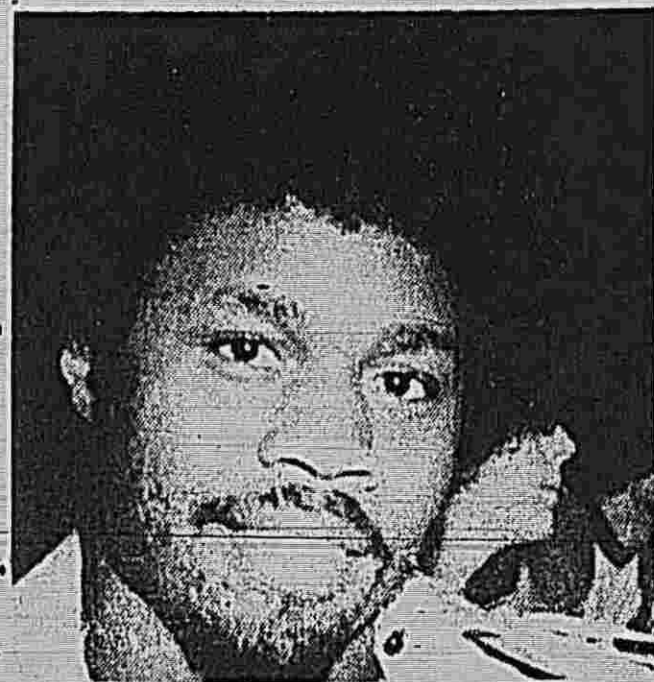

GIVES CASH SUPPORT—Dick Daskal of Carpet World, Waukegan, presents cash donation to Toys For Tots program to Joyce Peterson, display advertising manager for Lakeland Newspapers. Cash donations will be handled through Waukegan Jaycees and used to buy toys.

Roland Harper heads local 'Tots' campaign

Roland Harper, a resident of Gurnee and star running back with the Chicago Bears, has been named the honorary chairman of this year's Toys For Tots campaign in Lake County.

Besides being a well known and visible figurehead chairman, Harper has assured members of the Toys For Tots organization that his intentions also include being actively visible in promoting this year's Toys For Tots program.

Harper hopes to be able to work with Toys For Tots, making appearances and aiding in the promotion of the overall program as much as possible. His time of course depends on his practice and game schedule with the Bears as well as other commitments.

LAN DROP BOXES—Joy D. Schuette, chairman of this year's Toys For Tots campaign along with Marine Capt. Dan Dame, center, passes out Toys For Tots campaign packet to Charles A. Quinlan, Jr., president of Libertyville National Bank. Quinlan was representing Premier Banks of Northern Illinois who will be utilizing their main and branch facilities as Toys For Tots collection points. Premier Banks include Libertyville National Bank, Grayslake National Bank, Premier Bank of Vernon Hills, First National Bank of Mundelein and Golf Mill State Bank.

OUT-DOOR WOOD

Wolmanized

Pressure-Treated Lumber

Bad news for termites, great news for homeowners

Outdoor® brand wood? Yes, you can get wood that is specially prepared for exterior use.

Outdoor wood is Wolmanized® lumber and plywood. It's ordinary wood—pressure-treated with Wolman® preservative chemicals so that it lasts for decades. It's resistant to decay and termites.

When you build a fence, patio, or any exterior structure, this is the beautifully practical material.

Considering how long Outdoor wood lasts, even if you don't paint it, or stain it, it's relatively inexpensive. Use Outdoor wood for your next project. You can be sure it will have the appearance and shape-holding qualities you expect because Outdoor wood is a high grade of material.

Be sure to look for the Outdoor® wood mark on each piece of lumber. If it doesn't have the mark, it isn't genuine Outdoor brand wood.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

I've been hearing strange noises emanating from the Antioch Sequoit Moose Lodge lately.

It seems that those cackles, quacks and gobbels, with an oink here and there are not the lodge members singing "Old MacDonald Had a Farm" but they are an indication that plans for the Moose Lodge's Feather Party, slated for Nov. 15, are under way.

The proceeds from the games, races etc. will go towards the Moose Lodge's Christmas, Halloween and Easter parties for the area children.

Sandra Kramer tells me that her son Paul Butler has just graduated from the U.S. Air Force's fire protection course at Chanute Air Force Base with honors and will be taking Horace Greeley's advice and "going west" to serve as an airman at Sheppard Air Force Base in Texas.

Our condolences to Sherman Rimer on the death of his mother on Nov. 9.

Congrats to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krane who celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary on Nov. 10. The celebration was held in Chicago with family and friends and congratulatory letters from Gov. Thompson and President Carter topped off the evening.

I guess the first 60 years are the hardest, at least that's what Frank, who is also about to celebrate his 90th birthday says.

Saw the cutest homemaker yet when I sighted Miss Antioch Dawn Flashner conducting her cooking class for Parks and Recreation at the Old Fire House last Monday.

Army Sergeant David Jenkins was one of the 17,000 U.S. based military personnel who participated in "Reforger" and "Crested Cap" exercises. These exercises demonstrated U.S. capability in moving ground forces in crisis situations.

Reforger was the return of forces to Germany and Crested Cap involved strategic deployment.

We are parents forever

by GLORIA DAVIS

A better testation to the validity of the old saying "time flies" can be found in parents' relationship with their adult children.

One day your the mother of four teetering tots, who is on call for continual diaper changes, nose wipings, ear scrubbing and traumatic problem solving.

You're always teaching, explaining and correcting and then all at once you wake up and find that you're the mother of four adults.

This seems to coincide with the immediate need for reading glasses, partial plates, Loving Care and either a girdle or Dr. Stillman's diet.

Now you're at a family gathering and realize that you have four friends, completely grown and independent, each an individual, with their own tributes and their own problems.

Suddenly you don't just love them, as you have for many years, but you find yourself enjoying their company on a peer level basis.

You hear them discussing their jobs and find it hard to understand that the little boys who never remembered to button their coats or wear a hat, even in below zero weather, who took a half hour to get to school even though it was just a block from home, yet could make it to the baseball diamond cross town in a flash, were the same ones who were discussing their computers, employees and the impact of the election on the economy.

You watch a lovely young lady move across the room, remembering the spindly creature whose clothes somehow were always a little too big.

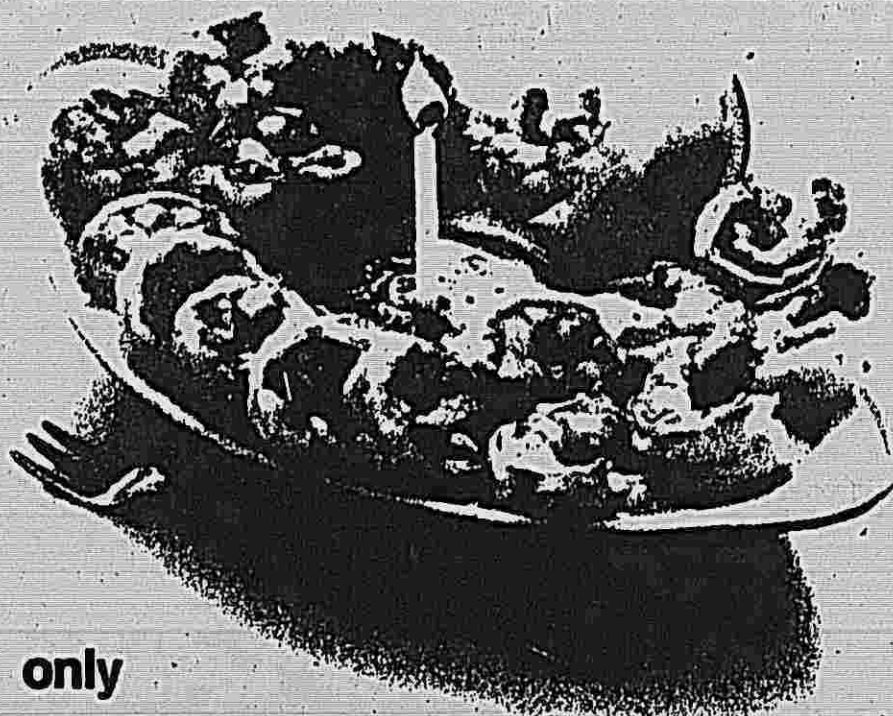

Oh, it seems like just yesterday when you thought that their childhoods would never end and often longed for a little time to yourself, away from them and their demands.

Then you realize that its today and all too soon the birds have flown the nest and you find yourself looking forward to the times they can find to spend with you.
